DONNA WISNIEWSKI NAMED CHAMPION “LEGEND”
Honored for Selling More Than $100 Million in Real Estate

Annapolis, MD: Donna Wisniewski, a real estate veteran who joined Champion Realty nearly two decades ago, has been honored as a Legend in Champion’s Hall of Fame for selling more than $100 million in real estate with Champion.

Legends receive an engraved watch and “Legend” added to their photo plaque in the Hall of Fame in Champion’s Severna Park headquarters. Until Donna’s husband, John, passed away in late 2016, the two worked as partners—and both were inducted into the Hall of Fame in 2009 for reaching $50 million in settled Champion sales.

“Becoming a Legend is really meaningful to me because it tells me I’m appreciated for all I do to help clients reach their goals in buying or selling a home,” Donna said. “John and I entered real estate in the 1970s, and over the years we’ve sold homes to three generations. When clients’ children and grandchildren seek you out to be their realtor, you know you are doing something right. I’m proud to continue to provide top service.”

“Donna Wisniewski is a caring, tireless and knowledgeable professional who is always focused on the best interests of her clients,” said Pat Savani, manager of Champion’s Annapolis office. “She is relentless in her commitment to provide exceptional service on every transaction.”

“Donna is a Legend in our company and our Hall of Fame, and not just because of her sales success over the years,” said Jon Coile, president and CEO of Champion Realty. “The empathy and caring attention she provides to all her clients is why families keep coming back for her help with what is, in many cases, the largest financial transaction in their lives. She is a real asset to Champion and the industry, and we are very proud of Donna and her accomplishments.”
